-- Passing Over

Hello Everyone,

Recently, a very lovely woman I know passed over after a long illness. I wanted to know more about dying and what happens, and why I didn't feel as much grief as I anticipated. I needed some answers so I turned inward to my inner guidance. What follows is the response I received.

Love and Light,

Vivienne

Passing Over

January 4 2004

Dearest Guiding Lights, My Friends,

I welcome you here into this lovely space, so full of peace and candlelight. I embrace you all as I sit and write and excitedly anticipate our communication.

Happy New Year to you all! I wonder if you celebrate our New Year with us. This indeed seems to be the beginning of something exciting; a new beginning full of hopeful possibilities. We are also saddened, my Friends about the departure from the earth plane of our loved one, Carol.

Unless you have other things to discuss today or address I would love to hear your views on death and dying and if there is any info. about our friend who's now on the other side, perhaps even from her own spirit, I truly welcome it.

Dear Child, we have anticipated you connecting with us around your concerns for Carol. We have watched and witnessed the passing of your friend and spiritual companion for this past week and we hoped you would reach out to us for we have much to say.

All time is shifting and changing as you approach the dawning of a new concept of space and time. You are on the brink of opening the doors to a new earthly reality that will unlock many secrets that the doors of time have held locked in-place. Is it any wonder to you Child, that you have only until recently been able to retrieve valuable tools from your ancient civilizations that can powerfully alter your perception of the dimensional relationship between time and space. You now have these tools once again in your hands. Yes Child, even you. Are we not now, even as we transcribe each other's thoughts accessing dimensions until very recently was possible only by a few who have existed over the millenniums. We say all this for a purpose Child, so please hold steady with our discourse.

Until now it was impossible to transcend the limitations placed on loved ones who had departed the Earth Plane; accessing them after they have removed themselves or been removed from the Earth Plane. The mystery of the Next World or Other World, so ingeniously described in your myths and heroic stories of your past, has remained just that, a mystery: incomprehensible and alien. So mysterious has this world been to Humans that they decided it was beyond their comprehension to envisage a world of hope and peace, their own hearts being filled by fear at the enormity of their lack of understanding. Henceforth, mystery only conjured up fear, fear conjured up the devil and the devil conjured up the residing place of the devil and that was hell.

To you Humans, hell appears to be a real place, place with dimensions of time and space not unlike your Earth Plane. In capturing the imagination of this hell it was determined that all souls not lived to their fullest and of course, the fullest in God's eyes, would reside there in pain, grief and torment.

Hear us, Child we know this is difficult for your heart to continue to open to because of your compounded lifetime beliefs but hear us Child, and it will all make sense. You and others deem it necessary for souls, after they've left their earthly body to no longer sing of the Divine; that souls are wanting in some way. You see the soul as being damaged and constricted and in need of resuscitation. We tell you Child, this is not true. A soul when it comes back into the fold of the One Creator spreads its wings and flies. It flies back to its one source to partake of the energy of the One. We tell you this Child, to assuage the illusion that the soul is incomplete from having lived a life on Earth. We tell you this is not true. What we would like to clarify is this: as the soul leaves the body it opens up a pathway to correct imbalances in the energetic codes held within the body. Matrixes of energy that hold memories and particular energy connections and signatures that are coupled up with the living. Carol's soul at this time is actually with family and friends in a different dimension from the Earth Plane. Her energetic connections and energetic memories are yes, still aligned with her loved ones who still reside on the Earth Plane.

Can these Energetics function without her soul?

Yes, Child and they must for she has been released by the passing of the death marker as you put it. The physical energy body leaves first and then the other bodies that surround the physical body still continue to exist until all things necessary for the completion of that lifetime has been accomplished.

We tell you this Child, not to scare you or perplex you. We tell you this Child to enlighten you and bring you into the age of knowledge about the other dimension that exists simultaneously within your own.

Your stories and fears around hell have held you all prisoners in that you have forgotten and lost the belief and comprehension of a loving Divine Creator. It has perpetuated the lie that souls, if not having completed their work, go to hell. This is a myth. We wish to expel from your belief system for it keeps you trapped in your inability to embrace death, dying, or as we prefer to relate to it as, transitioning: simply it is a transition from one dimension into another. You visit this dimension often, in your sleep, in your daydreams, during your conversations with the Divine but rarely do you allow yourselves to understand that this is the same place you transition to upon your leaving the Earth plane. To us, we are bringing you good news. This is your resurrection. This is your Home, your knowing expanded state of being. We open your eyes Child, because you have reported that you have not felt sad about Carol's passing this week. Can you now understand why?

I guess what you're saying is that I understand that Carol has become expanded in her soul's being again.

Yes, Child you have. You are blessed with the understanding that there is no ending here. The only thing that has happened is that you just cannot call her up on the telephone but you can call her up on our telephone anytime you want. She will respond because in the next dimension there are not those limitations of time and space that you value here. Put a call into Carol and she will respond. Try it!

What now?

Yes, Child, try it now. Be not so afraid of the possibility of being successful. You will not go to hell!

You really want me to try?

We want you to prove us wrong!

(I do connect to an energy of Carol and have a conversation. For privacy sake I edit it out.)

Child, do you now believe us?

I'm not sure. I still think I'm making it up.

That's fine, Child. We understand. We wanted you to try to do this. We wish for you to transcend the dimensional limitations of the Earth Plane so you can create peace and harmony around shifts in your awareness of reality. It's necessary to practice so that when they are more profound they do not scare you.

Yes, I can see the wisdom in that. Is there anything else you wish me to be aware of around this at this time?

We still suggest that you open your heart daily and connect with us. We can help stabilize your fields as things continue to shift.

What about this coming year. I feel an excitement as if I will be really successful?

See this year as the beginning of the magic where all your hard work will pay off and where your voice will be as a beacon of warmth and light to those acclimating themselves into the new, stupendous dimension that you all moving into at this time. Remember Child, be as Grace in Action, prepare yourself so that you may prepare others in the New world.

In joy at this loving celebration, we embrace you and yours to endure, but not much longer, the topsy-turvy aspect to the shifting dimensions. Above all child, know that you are safe. Just become Grace in Action. Open your heart, prepare yourself and you will be safeguarded from the traumas that may come about in the world. You are safe but you're to align with safety. So please heed our words.

In love and light and brotherhood, we remain forever your guidance.

Thank you.

Yes, Child you're welcome.
